

Altering of the current "Do not call List" would be putting the telemarketing companies ahead of the consumers privacy, and sending a message to the public that the FCC can be manipulated by "Big Money" and a little more loss of our right to privacy is the price paid...By the public, please make no changes to the current policies in place with the list.

Thank You